

Publié sur La Vie des Classiques (<https://96.ip-213-32-20.eu>)

Accueil > Extended deadline: Studia UBB Digitalia, Digital Classics edition

---

EXTENDED DEADLINE: STUDIA UBB DIGITALIA, DIGITAL CLASSICS EDITION

Reposting to note extended deadline, and interest in Digital Classics, of the forthcoming issue of Studia Digitalia:

UNIVERSITATEA
BABEŞ-BOLYAI

Studia
Universitatis
Babeş-Bolyai

Digitalia

Studia UBB Digitalia (ISSN 2559-6721) is the official journal of the Transylvania Digital Humanities Center - DigiHUBB. It is a peer-reviewed, open access scholarly publication, indexed in CEEOL and dealing with subjects of general interest in the field of digital humanities.

Its following number (4/2018) will be dedicated to digital classics, ancient history & archaeology, with a special focus on projects and initiatives pertaining to these fields. The subjects can include, but are not limited to, digital approaches to geo-visualization, non-invasive archaeological prospections, markup, scholarly annotation, photogrammetry, databases, etc.

The call is open to all specialists of the field, but we strongly encourage submissions from early career researchers.

The deadline for submissions is January 15th and for the Authors Guidelines, please see the dedicated page on the journal's website. The articles should be submitted to dr. Rada Varga (radavarga@gmail.com).

For additional questions on this number of Studia UBB Digitalia, please contact us at the same e-mail address.

---