EMAIL DIFFICULTIES BUT NOT FOR ME

Apparently Susan Rhoads of elfinspell.com is having email difficulties. There doesn't seem to be a form on her site which one can use, so I have no reliable way to send her a message.

So here's a post to say that I did receive a message through my own contact form this evening. No, I haven't blocked any of her email accounts.

I suspect the problem is at her end. Susan, if you are reading this, try creating and using a gmail account via a web browser!

It is nearly midnight here, so I am going to bed. I don't use my PC on Sunday anyway.
