A 1711 PAINTING SHOWING THE META SUDANS

There is a painting in Turin, in the Galleria Sabauda, of a view of the Colosseum and the Arch of Titus, dating from 1711, and painted by Gaspar van Wittel (Vanvitteli). But it also shows a taller Meta Sudans than we know from the 19th century. Here it is:

The ruined old fountain stands outside the Arch of Constantine, on the right.
